

LA SELECTION Alcools enchanteurs

Magic drinks

Santa Claus's name is Bacchus

Once the table set and the yule log in the hearth, it's time to think of the drinks for the guests! For the holidays, among the famous Houses of wine and champagne imagined so many luxury boxes that some will prefer putting their under the tree rather than serve them at table! For example, like the case with the very beautiful box specially created by Chassenay d'Arce who chose to mix champagne tasting glasses with their three exceptional vintage wines. As for the House of Henri Abelé, it innovates by covering the bottles with joy, carvings for elegance and chic! At the table, some will prefer the reassuring warmth of a classic Chateau-Thiercelin or the well-rounded wine by the House of Le Clos du Noireau, while others will want to capture people's minds by offering their guests a vintage magnum. At the end of the meal, while the kids will be enjoying opening their gifts, the adults will be relaxing, tasting a classy calvados or a local rum between the initiated. To be consumed in moderation!
